Seeing is Creating:

Textual-Visual Narratives of Hong Kong Children's Literature

Date: 6-18 Nov 2024

Time: 12:30 – 7:30 pm

Venue: Parallel Space, 202 Tai Nan Street, Sham Shui Po, Hong Kong

This exhibition of Hong Kong children's literature is partially supported by FDS (UGC/FDS15/H19/23). Many of the reading materials for children are beautifully illustrated and narrated with both words and pictures. But how do these elements work together? By displaying copies of picture book illustrations, magazines, and booklets, the exhibition will showcase the interactions between words and images in children's literature

The exhibition will also organize a talk to address the enduring significance of Ho Tsz's writings to Hong Kong children's literature. The speakers will discuss topics such as adapting the text for contemporary young readers, revisiting the content, and enriching the stories with new illustrations.
